- Attachment 5 – Submission form for Technical & Cost Proposal
- Attachment 6 – Conflict of Interest Certification Form
- Capacity chart and floor plan

7.0 OFFER PERIOD

A Proposer's proposal is an irrevocable offer for ninety (90) days following the proposal due date. In the event a final contract has not been awarded within this ninety (90) day period, the Judicial Council of California reserves the right to negotiate extensions to this period.

8.0 EVALUATION OF PROPOSALS

At the time proposals are opened, each proposal will be checked for the presence or absence of the required proposal contents.

The Judicial Council of California will evaluate the proposals on a 100 point scale using the criteria set forth in the table below. Award, if made, will be to the highest scored proposal.

| CRITERION                   | PERCENTAGE |
|------------------------------------|-------------------|
| Cost                               | 30%               |
| Acceptance of Terms and Conditions | 10%               |
| Experience of Past Programs        | 5%                |
| Property                           | 20%               |
| Meeting and Function Space         | 20%               |
| Food and Beverage                  | 10%               |
| Concessions                        | 5%                |

9.0 INTERVIEWS

The Judicial Council of California may conduct interviews with Proposers to clarify aspects set forth in their proposals. If conducted, interviews will likely be conducted by phone or during site visits. The Judicial Council of California will not reimburse Proposers for any costs incurred pertaining to an interview, including travel expenses. The Judicial Council of California will notify eligible Proposers regarding interview arrangements.

10.0 RIGHTS

The Judicial Council of California reserves the right to reject any and all proposals, in whole or in part, as well as the right to issue similar RFPs in the future. This RFP is in no way an agreement, obligation, or contract and in no way is the Judicial Council of California or the State of California responsible for the cost of preparing a proposal. One copy of each proposal will be retained by the Judicial Council of California for official files and will become a public record.

11.0 CONFIDENTIAL OR PROPRIETARY INFORMATION

California judicial branch entities are subject to rule 10.500 of the California Rule of Court (see www.courtinfo.ca.gov/cms/rules/index.cfm?title=ten&linkid=rule10\_500), which governs public access to judicial administrative records.

If information submitted in a proposal contains material noted or marked as confidential and/or proprietary that, in the Judicial Council of California's sole opinion, meets the disclosure exemption requirements of Rule 10.500, then that information will not be disclosed upon a request for access to such records. If the Judicial Council of California finds or reasonably believes that the material so marked is not exempt from disclosure, the Judicial Council of California will disclose the information regardless of the marking or notation seeking confidential treatment.

12.0 DISABLED VETERAN BUSINESS ENTERPRISE PARTICIPATION GOALS

The Judicial Council of California has waived the inclusion of DVBE participation in this solicitation

13.0 PROTESTS

Any protests will be handled in accordance with Chapter 7 of the Judicial Branch Contract Manual (see www.courts.ca.gov/documents/jbcl-manual.pdf). Failure of a Proposer to comply with the protest procedures set forth in that chapter will render a protest inadequate and non-responsive, and will result in rejection of the protest. The deadline for the Judicial Council of California to receive a solicitation specifications protest is the due date and time for submittal of proposals.

Protests should be sent to:

JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF CALIFORNIA
Branch Accounting and Procurement - Contracts
ATTN: Protest Hearing Officer
455 Golden Gate Avenue, 6th Floor
San Francisco, CA 94102
