The Receiving Party shall, within ten (10) Business Days, provide a final written response ("Final Response") or request additional information deemed necessary to prepare a Final Response. The Final Response shall state whether the Receiving Party accepts or rejects the Demand. The Final Response must be provided to the Submitting Party in the form required by the Section of this Agreement entitled "Notice". If the Receiving Party requests additional information to prepare the Final Response, the Submitting Party shall promptly comply with the Receiving Party's request for such information. Any delay caused by the Submitting Party's failure to respond to a request for additional information shall extend the ten (10) Business Day period within which the Receiving Party must provide a Final Response, however, unless otherwise agreed to by the Parties in writing, in no event shall the time period allowed for a Final Response be extended beyond twenty (20) Business Days following the date on which the Submitting Party issues the Demand. Regardless of any request(s) for additional information, a failure on the part of the Receiving Party to provide a Final Response within these twenty (20) Business Days shall be deemed a rejection of the Demand.
- 14.1.4. Senior Level Negotiations. If the Demand is rejected and the Submitting Party provides written Notice that it will continue to pursue the Demand, or if the time period allowed for a Final Response to the Demand has expired without issuance of a Final Response, the Parties shall attempt to resolve the Demand by negotiations between assigned senior representatives of the Parties. Invoicing and Payments may only be made according to this Schedule of Deliverables and Milestone Payments. Deliverables must be tangible.

Reimbursable Items: If performance of a Service will necessitate Consultant's use of Reimbursable Items, provide a listing of the Reimbursable Items necessary to perform the Service, along with quantities necessary, price, extended price, and a subtotal for all Reimbursable Items. If in the Owner's judgment, the Additional Detailed Instructions do in fact constitute Work in excess of the requirements of the authorized Work Order, the Owner may, at Owner's option, either close the authorized Work Order and create a new Work Order or issue a Supplementary Work Order to account for the excess Work.

Any prices, rates, charges, fees, and any rules, terms, or conditions regarding Travel and Living Expenses specified in Exhibit D that conflict with the provisions of Exhibit F are null and void and without effect.

- 6.1. If so specified in a Work Order, the Judicial Council shall reimburse Consultant for actual and reasonable transportation, meals, and lodging expenses actually incurred by Consultant's and its Sub-Consultants' employees when actually incurred in the course of their performance of the Work, but subject to the following:

- 6.1.1. If air transportation is authorized, the Judicial Council will reimburse Consultant only at the actual cost incurred. All air transportation is limited to coach fares and must be booked a minimum of fourteen (14) Business Days prior to travel, unless the Project Manager agrees in writing to a shorter period in the Work Order.
- 6.1.2. If overnight lodging expense is authorized, in accordance with the California Victim Compensation and Government Claims Board (formerly State Board of Control) guidelines, the Judicial Council will reimburse Consultant only (i) for hotel room rental at the actual cost, but not to exceed $120.00 per Day, plus occupancy tax and/or energy surcharge; and (ii) for meals, at the actual cost but not to exceed the following maximum amounts per person per Day: breakfast $8.00; lunch $12.00; dinner $20.00; and incidentals $6.00. - 6.1.3. If private vehicle ground transportation expense is authorized, the Judicial Council will reimburse Consultant at the then published Federal cents per mile, pursuant to <https://www.irs.gov/tax-professionals/standard-mileage-rates>.
- 6.1.4. The Judicial Council is not obligated to pay for, and Consultant shall not invoice for any hours of non-production Work expended by the Consultant or its Sub-Consultants' employees that are spent traveling to or from the location where the Service(s) are performed.
- 6.1.5. Travel and Living Expenses shall be billed to the Judicial Council at Consultant's actual cost, including any discounts or rebates accorded to Consultant or its Sub-Consultants, and are not subject to any markup, fee, or other charge.
- 6.1.6. Notwithstanding the preceding, Consultant shall be required to ensure its workers are paid, and Judicial Council shall reimburse Consultant to the extent applicable for, all travel and/or subsistence payments pursuant to Labor Code sections 1773.1 and 1773.9 or as otherwise required by the Prevailing Wage Laws.

7. Taxes

The Judicial Council is exempt from federal excise taxes and no payment will be made for any taxes levied on Consultant's or any Sub-Consultants' employees' wages. - 10.2. Payment shall be made by the Judicial Council to the Consultant at the address specified when this Agreement was signed. Changes to this address can be made by notifying the Judicial Council in writing of the new remittance address, but should be done prior to invoice submission to avoid processing delays.
- 10.3. The Judicial Council may withhold full or partial payment to the Consultant in any instance in which the Consultant has failed or refused to satisfy any material obligation provided for under this Agreement or the Work Order.

11. Disallowance

If the Consultant claims or receives payment from the Judicial Council that is later disallowed by the Judicial Council, the Consultant shall promptly refund the disallowed amount to the Judicial Council upon the Judicial Council's request. At its option, the Judicial Council may offset the amount disallowed from any payment due or that may become due to the Consultant under this Agreement or any other agreement.

12. Payment Does Not Imply Acceptance of Work

The granting of any payment by the Judicial Council, or the receipt thereof by the Consultant, shall in no way lessen the liability of the Consultant to correct unsatisfactory work in connection with this Agreement.

13. Release of Claims

- 13.1. The acceptance by Consultant of its final payment due under an authorized Work Order shall be and shall operate as a release of the Judicial Council, the Court(s) and the State from all claims and all liability to the Consultant for everything done or furnished in connection with said Work Order, including every act and neglect of the Judicial Council and or the Court(s).
- 13.2. Consultant shall, on the face of Consultant's final invoice submitted for payment, expressly identify as outstanding any claim that it has. Consultant's failure to identify any such claims shall operate as a release of all claims.
